

E-SIGN DISCLOSURE

Submitting an application for membership, opening of an account or any other electronic document either in person or through the State Employees Credit Union of New Mexico website constitutes your electronic signature. Any record containing an electronic signature shall be deemed for all purposes to have been "signed" and will constitute an "original" when printed from electronic records established and maintained by State Employees Credit Union of New Mexico or its agents in the normal course of business. Upon the credit union's request, you agree to manually sign or place your signature on any paper original of any electronic record that the credit union provides to you containing your purported electronic signature.
